This event is sponsored by The Georgetown Center for Business and Public Policy, a non-partisan research center housed at Georgetown University's McDonough School of Business. The Center was created in 2002 to encourage dialogue and to document and disseminate knowledge on a range of issues in the public interest. Our mission is to engage scholars, business people and policymakers in relevant inquiries and dialogue to impact key business, economic and ethical public policy issues confronting American and international businesses today. The McDonough School has an international focus, a rigorous academic environment, and a diverse student body that make the Georgetown experience unique. Within that framework, the center stands as a creative and intellectual marketplace for thoughtful exploration and careful testing of ideas on real world problems.
